2
3 EXPLANATION OF BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE IN A CHAPTER 13 CASE

4 This court order grants a discharge to the person named as the debtor after 5 the debtor has completed all payments under the chapter 13 plan. It is not a 6 dismissal of the case.

6 Collection of Discharged Debts Prohibited

7 The discharge prohibits any attempt to collect from the debtor a debt that 8 has been discharged. For example, a creditor is not permitted to contact a debtor 9 by mail, phone, or otherwise, to file or continue a lawsuit, to attach wages or 10 other property, or to take any other action to collect a discharged debt from the 11 debtor. [In a case involving community property:] [There are also special rules 12 that protect certain community property owned by the debtor's spouse, even if 13 that spouse did not file a bankruptcy case.] A creditor who violates this order 14 can be required to pay any damages and attorney's fees to the debtor.

15 However, a creditor may have the right to enforce a valid lien, such as a 16 mortgage or security interest, against the debtor's property after the 17 bankruptcy, if that lien was not avoided or eliminated in the bankruptcy case.
18 Also, a debtor may voluntarily pay any debt that has been discharged.

14 Debts That are Discharged

15 The chapter 13 discharge order eliminates a debtor's legal obligation to 16 pay a debt that is discharged. Most, but not all, types of debts are discharged
17 if the debt is provided for by the chapter 13 plan or is disallowed by the court
18 pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

17 Debts that are Not Discharged.

18 Some of the common types of debts which are not discharged in a chapter 13 19 bankruptcy case are:

- 20 a. Debts that are in the nature of alimony, maintenance, or support;
21 a. Debts for most student loans;
22 b. Debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution
23 obligations;
24 c. Debts for personal injuries or death caused by the debtor's operation 25 of a motor vehicle while intoxicated;
d. Debts provided for under section 1322(b) (5) of the Bankruptcy Code and on which the last payment is due after the date on which the final payment under the plan was due; and
e. Debts for certain consumer purchases made after the bankruptcy case was filed if prior approval by the trustee of the debtor's incurring the debt was practicable but was not obtained.

This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge.
There are exceptions to these general rules. Because the law is complicated, you may want to consult an attorney to determine the exact effect of the discharge in this case.
